

Dear Friends,

“To Everything there is a Season”

Looks like yesterday when we moved in on Highway 34 and started our new adventure as Innkeepers. Our new home also became a home away from home for many, if only for a short while.

We would like to thank all of you who have been companions on our journey and have given us this wonderful opportunity to live our dream. After retiring, we felt we had a few miles left and wanted to make the best of it – and that we did. It has been an honour and privilege to own the Cranberry House B&B from 2011-2021. Many have enriched us with their presence and allowed us to share in their joys and grief: Anniversaries, weddings, tournaments, family reunions, vacations, celebrations of life, work and the discovery of our many local treasures.

There is a saying , “May all who enter as guests leave as friends”. We have truly been blessed by so many new friends.

*Thank you,
Sandy and John*
